Daniel Daymude

Redding, CA
danieldaymude@gmail.com | 703-431-3934

PROFESSIONAL SUMMARY

Detail-oriented business and finance professional with a Bachelor's degree in Business Finance and experience supporting financial operations, reporting, forecasting, and data organization across multiple organizations. Skilled in maintaining accurate documentation, reviewing financial data for discrepancies, and supporting reporting processes used for business decision making.

Experienced in building tracking systems, custom calculators, and operational tools that improve reporting accuracy, forecasting, and strategic decision-making. Strong ability to analyze business processes, organize complex data, and develop scalable systems that support operational efficiency and financial visibility. Proficient in Microsoft Excel and Microsoft Office applications with strong attention to detail, analytical problem-solving abilities, and process improvement experience.

EDUCATION

Bachelor of Science – Business Finance
George Mason University – Fairfax, VA

Relevant Coursework
Financial Analysis
Corporate Finance
Statistics for Business
Accounting Principles
Financial Modeling Fundamentals

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Production Manager

Be Authentic Productions – Redding, CA
March 2023 – Present

Manage day-to-day project coordination, operational tracking, and business systems development for production operations.

- Track project timelines, deliverables, and operational details to ensure accurate reporting and execution
- Maintain organized documentation, including schedules, production records, and project logs
- Coordinate with clients and internal team members to gather required information for project execution
- Support billing processes and maintain financial tracking spreadsheets for project work
- Use Excel and internal documentation systems to track project progress and operational data
- Built tracking systems, custom calculators, and workflow tools used to improve project management, forecasting, pricing, and operational decision-making
- Assisted with project forecasting, pricing strategy, budgeting considerations, and operational planning
- Managed and trained two operators while overseeing scheduling, project execution, and workflow coordination
- Assisted in the build-out and refinement of project management systems and operational frameworks to improve efficiency and scalability

---

Agile Project Management & Training Coordinator

AccountTECH – Remote
December 2021 – April 2023

Supported implementation of accounting software and coordinated onboarding projects for new customers.

- Managed multiple concurrent onboarding projects during structured 4–6 week implementation cycles
- Organized project documentation, meeting schedules, and system training materials

- Created and maintained over 60 training videos and documentation resources for internal systems
- Assisted customers in troubleshooting software or data-related issues during onboarding
- Communicated with internal teams and customers to ensure accurate information and successful project completion

---

Account Technician

Federal Emergency Management Agency – Winchester, VA
February 2019 – February 2020

Provided financial and administrative support for federal disaster response operations.

- Reviewed financial documentation including travel authorizations, vouchers, and expense reports for accuracy
- Identified discrepancies in financial data and assisted with resolving reporting issues
- Maintained organized financial records within federal financial management systems
- Assisted employees with financial documentation and reporting questions
- Ensured documentation complied with established procedures and financial reporting requirements

---

Project Manager – Corporate Finance & Operations

Century 21 Redwood Real Estate – Ashburn, VA
December 2014 – October 2018

Supported financial operations and reporting processes for a real estate organization with over $2B in annual sales.

Finance and Commission Analyst

- Assisted with accounts payable and accounts receivable processes including payment verification and expense tracking
- Reviewed commission reports and financial data for accuracy
- Generated spreadsheets and internal financial reports for management review

Operations and Systems Support Specialist

- Managed internal support requests and maintained systems used by employees across multiple offices
- Implemented tracking systems to improve organization of operational requests and documentation

Office Manager

- Oversaw administrative operations for a 30+ agent office location
- Maintained financial records, processed deposits, and supported office reporting needs

---

TECHNICAL SKILLS

Microsoft Office Suite
Financial Data Review
Spreadsheet Reporting
Documentation Management
Data Organization

CORE SKILLS

Attention to Detail
Data Organization & Reporting
Process Compliance
Financial Documentation Review
Administrative Coordination
Written & Verbal Communication